Editor's Postscript

Thank you for reading through DISCO's CSR Report. For this year's edition, we updated the design and tried to make the CSR easy to grasp for people not familiar with the concept. We had much discussion in particular on what the CSR means to DISCO and what examples to highlight from the year.

DISCO does not conduct its activities with the word "CSR" foremost in mind; rather, we believe that steadily and sincerely carrying out each day's tasks guided by our corporate philosophy will result in the company fulfilling its social responsibilities. We have expressed this conviction by highlighting, on the cover, the letters "C", "S" and "R" in DISCO Corporation.

We hope that this report will encourage further dialogue with stakeholders and further promote CSR activities.
